I am a Canadian actor and creator raised on the unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq in Wagobatik/Truro, Nova Scotia. I am a graduate of The National Theatre School of Canada, the recipient of two Theatre Nova Scotia Awards, an ACTRA Maritimes Award Nominee and was selected as a "Breakthrough Theatre Artist" by NOW Magazine. I may be most recognized for my work as Lykos, The Prince of Athens, on the limited SyFy series 'Olympus' and the role of Tyler Ward in Michael Ross Albert's 'Miss'. I am the co-founder of Toronto's longest-running intersectional conversation series, Dark Nights, and have produced work for Soulpepper Theatre, The City of Toronto, Harbourfront Centre, Fall for Dance North, Esie Mensah Creations, Madonnaera, Pearle Harbour and Lester Trips (Theatre). As a filmmaker, my original work continues to be presented internationally and has received support from The National Film Board of Canada, the Inside Out Film Festival, the Toronto Arts Council, the Ontario Arts Council, the Canada Council for the Arts and distribution through CBC, and OUTtv. I split my time between Toronto, New York and Nova Scotia.
